DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed September 14, 2007 has been submitted for consideration by the Office. It has been placed in the application file and the information referred to therein has been considered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 30-54 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: This invention deals with an electrical connection device for connecting a multi-core machine cable to a suitable other electrical device, the multi-core machine cable being of the type having insulated cores individually surrounded by earth-potential layers, the device comprising: an insulating body; a plurality of insulating sleeves extending into the body; a plurality of core coupling means each being at least in part positioned in a respective insulating sleeve, each core coupling means being connectable to a respective core of the machine cable and having a first contact surface for connecting to a terminal of the suitable other electrical device so as to provide electrical connections of the machine cable with the suitable other electrical device; and a plurality of spaced apart earth coupling means surrounding at least a portion of respective insulating sleeves, each earth coupling means being connectable to a respective earth-potential layer of the machine cable and having a second contact surface for connecting to an earth potential terminal of the suitable other electrical device, wherein the core coupling means are earth-potential screened from one another and said earth coupling means are, within said body, electrically isolated from each other, so that a continuation of individual earth-connections to the suitable other electrical connection device is possible (claim 1).

This invention also deals with an electrical connection device for connection to a suitable other electrical device the device comprising: a multi-core machine cable of the type having insulated cores individually surrounded by earth-potential layers; an insulating body; a plurality of insulating sleeves extending into the body; a plurality of core coupling means each being at least in part positioned in a respective insulating sleeve, each core coupling means being connected to a respective core of the machine cable and having a first contact surface for connecting to a terminal of the suitable other electrical device so as to provide electrical connections of the machine cable with the suitable other electrical device; and a plurality of spaced apart earth coupling means surrounding respective insulating sleeves, each earth coupling means being connected to a respective earth-potential layer of the machine cable such that, within the body, each core and the respective core coupling means are surrounded by a respective conductive layer or by the earth potential layer of the respective core, the earth coupling means having a second contact surface for connecting to an earth potential terminal of the suitable other electrical device, wherein the core coupling means are earth-potential screened from one another and said earth coupling means are, within said body, electrically isolated from each other, so that a continuation of individual earth-connections to the suitable other electrical connection device is possible (claim 53).

The above stated claim limitations are not taught or suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed November 30, 2007 have been fully considered and they are persuasive. Specifically, the applicant's argument that none of the cited prior art teaches an earth coupling means within the body and electrically isolated from one another is persuasive and the claims have been allowed.
